Working Hours and Rules.

1. In the home port, the working hours shall be from 7 a. m. to 12 m. and from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. and any work performed in the home port by Firemen, Watertenders, Oilers, Wipers and Coalpassers, between the hours of 5 p. m. and 7 a. m. on ordinary week days, and on Sunday and legal holiday shall be paid for at overtime rate except as otherwise provided.

2. In the home and all other ports, the Donkeymen and Watertenders or Combination Men shall be paid overtime between the hours of 5 p. m. and 7 a. m. on ordinary week days, and on Sunday and legal holiday, when furnishing steam to operate winches, elevators, conveyors, to move ship, and to run dynamos when the latter are being used in connection with the loading or discharging of the vessel's or other cargo, and when used for furnishing light for boiler, bilge, tank, bunker, fire- or engine-room scalers or cleaners, and mechanics in general or otherwise. Said Donkeymen to be Firemen.

2a. When moving vessel in any rivers, harbors, bays or sounds after 5:00 p. m. or before 7:00 a. m. on week days, and on Sundays and legal holidays, straight overtime to be paid to the members of the crew that are actually engaged in the moving of the vessel.

2b. In the home and all other ports when Donkeymen, Watertenders or Combination Men are required to stand watches or keep steam on Sunday or legal holiday for any purpose, other than that as specified in Rule Two, they shall be given equivalent time off and if equivalent time cannot be given off, then they shall be paid the regular overtime rate for such Sunday or legal holiday.

3. When Firemen, Watertenders, Oilers,

Wipers and Coalpassers are standing the regular sea-watches in any port other than the home port, they shall do any work which is part of their recognized regular sea duty, but no scaling, painting, cleaning paint, polishing brass or bright work, overhauling work, sponging tubes and scaling or cleaning bilges (overhauling work, sponging tubes and bilges excepted only in cases of emergency), shall be done on Sunday or legal holiday, nor between the hours of 6 p. m. and 6 a. m. on ordinary week days.

4. If the Chief Engineer in charge decides that it would be advisable to break the sea-watches when lying in any port other than the home port, Rule One shall govern work. Sea-watches shall be considered broken when one or more members of the fire- or engine-room crew, namely, Firemen, Watertenders, Oilers, Wipers and Coalpassers, are assigned to either day or night duty.

5. Any work performed at sea by Firemen, Watertenders, Oilers, Wipers and Coalpassers over their regular watches, other than for the immediate safety of the vessel, her passengers, cargo and crew, shall be paid for at overtime rate.

6. Wipers shall only when at sea wipe for two hours on Sunday and United States legal holidays which shall be from 6 a. m. to 8 a. m.

7. On day of sailing sea watches shall be set not later than 6 a. m. nor before 6 a. m., the latter excepted in cases only when the vessel is going to sea direct before 6 a. m. (Sailing to mean last port where vessel loads or discharges cargo, bound for sea. Arrival to mean first port where vessel loads or discharges cargo, coming in from sea.)

8. On day of sailing if sea-watches are not set strictly in accordance with Rule Seven, overtime shall be paid to Firemen, Watertenders, Oilers, Wipers and Coalpassers for any work performed outside of their regular sea-watches.

9. All claims for overtime shall be approved by the ship's delegate and the Chief Engineer as soon as practicable after such overtime work ceases.

10. None but members of the Marine Firemen, Oilers and Watertenders' Union of the Pacific shall be employed in their respective capacities when available.

11. The following shall be observed as legal holidays: United States legal holidays everywhere, State holidays in the port of the State where the vessel may be at the time.

12. In case these rules shall conflict with any law now existing or that may become effective during the term of this agreement, then these rules shall be amended to conform therewith.

13. Members are cautioned to be on board at the time requested by the Engineer on day of sailing.

14. It is further agreed that proper bedding, blankets, linen, etc., shall be furnished to all men herein mentioned by the vessel, and that suitable messrooms shall be provided for, separate and apart from all living and sleeping quarters, and from the effluvium of cargo or bilge water.

15. All members of this Union shall be hired direct from the Union's offices or from the docks.

16. Members are hereby cautioned that in cases of dispute with reference to overtime, that they shall perform the work required of them by the Engineer and then refer their case to the Union for final settlement.

17. When the crew is not boarded on board of the vessel they shall each receive 50c per meal for board money, and when compelled to sleep on shore on account of repairing, cleaning or fumigating sleeping quarters they each shall receive 50c per night for room rent.

18. When crew is working by vessels that are laid up for repairs (and not loading or discharging cargo) shop or shipyard hours shall apply, except on sailing days, when the regular sailing day rules shall prevail.

19. When crew is paid off on the Atlantic Coast and transportation is furnished back to the Pacific Coast, $5.00 per day per member shall be allowed for subsistence.

20. These wages and working rules shall remain in full force and effect from the 1st day of March, 1918, and continuously thereafter unless canceled by thirty days' notice, such notice to be in writing.
